A Message From Our CEO

The year is more than halfway over and so far, 2021 has been a time to strengthen our country after a year of uncertainty. At WAEPA, we continue to fully commit ourselves to promoting the health, welfare, and financial well-being of our members. We've elected our 2021 Board of Directors, launched a new product (Short Term Disability Insurance), and continue to add to our overall member experience.

In doing so, we want to personally invite you to WAEPA's 5th Annual Member Meeting and Federal Summit on Thursday, October 21st at 9am ET. We'll have tailored discussions regarding the future of the federal workforce, what it will be like to return to the workplace after COVID-19, and I will share an update on new WAEPA products and initiatives. Please find details on how to register below.

You can rest assured knowing WAEPA will continue to go above and beyond for Civilian Federal Employees, not only to provide exceptional products, but to create a space tailored to Feds navigating the federal workforce.

Whether you are a long-time member or this is your first year with us— thank you for choosing WAEPA.

M. Shane Canfield
CEO of WAEPA
